'No one in RP has been prayed for as much as Cory'

By Fe Zamora, Tina G. Santos and Allan W. Lopez

"NO ONE IN THIS COUNTRY has ever been prayed for so long as much as former President Corason Aquino," said Pi Jerry Ordo in his family at the Mass he celebrated at the Manila City Hall at noon yesterday.

At Edsa Shrine, Bishop Theodore Bacani said last night during Mass to mark a 40-hour vigil for the aging democracy icon that Aquino's legacy is that she showed us a leader who did not know how to "cheat, lie or steal."

"While you young ones (she didn't really know)," Bacani said, after recalling Aquino's response to the 1986 snap presidential election where then dictator Ferdinand Marcos said that his challenger could not be president because she was just a

CHR: Melissa trip to camp inconclusive

By Nikko Dion and Dora Pazzibon

PORT MAGSAYSAY, NEGROS OCCIDENTAL—Dressed in a black bikini, her face hidden by her long hair, a ring and a big pair of glasses, Philippine-American actress Melissa Joan Hart had to be prodded to step into the guard barracks of a military facility pending in Nueva Ecija.

The barracks of the 7th Military Intelligence Detachment of the Army's 7th Infantry Division headquarters at Fort Maginoy was being checked by the Commission on Human Rights (CHR) as possibly the place where Hart said she was held captive and tortured by men she believed to be soldiers.

Enrile: Erap mobbed everywhere

By Christine G. Arendata

FORMER PRESIDENT JOSEPH "Erap" Estrada is being mobbed everywhere he goes and can easily outlive any other presidential aspirant anywhere.

Senate President Juan Ponce Enrile, who had been in a number of places Estrada visited recently, suddenly to duck to answering supporters, is putting a bet on this.

"You want to see this? Put Enriple in any corner here in Manila and put any of those candidates in other corners, we'll see where the crowd will go," Enrile said in a meeting Wednesday night with congress-

JPE on Cha-cha: No way before 2010 polls

CHANCE CHANGE BEFORE next year's elections? "No way!" said Senate President Juan Ponce Enrile.

"It's almost certain it will not happen before 2010. Maybe it will happen after that," Enrile said at a dinner with congressmen and reporters on Wednesday.

Enrile said he was supporting moves to amend the Constitution through a constitutional convention after next year's balloting. He said he was open to proposals to adopt the parliamentary system, but warned it has "its own weaknesses also if you will not put safeguards."

A meeting of firsts at the White House

By Gil C. Cabacungan Jr.

WASHINGTON (VIA PLDT)—THE MEETING that was to take place at the White House between 2 and 3 a.m. today (Philippine time) was a meeting of firsts.

For President Macapagal-Arroyo's own administration, security, economy and the environment were to be the main issues for discussion at her meeting with US President Barack Obama.

"My expectations for the trip are straightforward: To meet the new US President and advance the interests of the Philippines with our strongest friend and ally. The US is essential to our economic, diplomatic and national security. We plan to ensure that these objectives remain front and center and on track between our two nations," the first Southeast Asian President to meet with the United States' first black President told members of a Filipino-American group in Washington. But was Ms Arroyo invited by Obama to the meeting at the Oval Office, as Makabaling has constantly claimed?

Not even the senior official of the US State Department who briefed the members of the Philippine media four hours before Ms Arroyo's arrival in Washington knew for sure.

"There was an opportunity for her to come in Washington. A visit was proposed, and the timing worked for both Presidents and they were happy to meet," said the official who declined to be named.

The official also said it was not as if Obama had chosen Ms Arroyo over other leaders of the

THE ENERGY REGULATORY COMMISSION (ERC) has issued rules to govern the proposed extension of electricity distribution utilities to begin addressing the needs of the country.

The extension is expected to help residential customers in managing their electricity consumption.

One of the rules has been issued. Distribution utilities can apply with the ERC to be allowed to add the proposed load capacity, service (PDS) to their residential customers, the commission said.

Under the PDS, a residential customer can purchase a specific amount of electricity to use in his or her home. The amount of electricity is based on the customer's electricity usage.

The system, which uses an electronic metering system, is also expected to benefit the distribution utilities by allowing them to "optimize efficiency."

Customers will have the option to apply for a prepaid total credit or a credit on their bill, subject to the distribution utility having sufficient credit to allow for prepaid electricity.

Like cell phones

"Budget-conscious residential customers can now control their electricity consumption better. A customer may opt to pay for electricity usage credit to use credit on their bill and then use electricity until the credit is exhausted. This is similar to the land purchased by cell phone users," ERC Chairperson C. Cruz said in a news release.

According to Cruz, the electricity rates will be the same as those charged under the existing prepaid system, unless the distribution utility applies for and the ERC approves a different rate.

To further protect the consumer, these rules distribution utilities will be required to keep records for each prepaid customer that will show a summary of purchases of electricity usage credit for the preceding two years.

The summary report must be provided by the distribution utility within five days from receipt of a customer's request, the rule said.

Prepaid meters

According to the ERC, the utility should also provide reasonable means to allow residential electricity to purchase electricity usage credit on a long-term basis, to ensure continuous electricity service.

The use of the prepaid metering system is to be decided by the distribution utility to prevent the system from being used by the consumer.

Prepaid meters will be subject to testing and certification by the ERC.

Under the rules, the prepaid electricity meter system must have the capabilities to load the purchased energy display real time information on how the load is being used, and give warning that the load is close to zero thereby providing sufficient buffer before electricity is completely disconnected.

THE PROPOSAL TO add another year to college education is back, as President Marcos said in a recent interview.

But the Commission on Higher Education (CHED) and the proposed to add another year to a four-year university course would be a non-starter.

In the meantime, the CHED will continue to study the status of those schools that take the year in a field.

According to CHED Chairperson Antonio, the commission will "re-structure" courses like engineering, accounting, pharmacy and physical therapy "so that they can be added without any additional cost to students but still make it possible to add a year to the course."

The idea is to make graduates of these courses globally competitive.

In his time, the President said that the President's Task Force on Education had recommended that students seeking "specialized training" should have a year of pre-college, two years of pre-university, and another two years of university.

Restructuring schools

The problem also is the "engineering, accounting, pharmacy and physical therapy" should have a year of pre-college, two years of pre-university, and another two years of university.

With the proposed restructuring, Antonio, at the end of a two-year pre-university course, a student would have learned specific skills or an associate degree and will even if they decide not to pursue another degree, a student in their intended profession, he said.

Antonio said the CHED will continue to study the status of those schools that take the year in a field.

Palace: Smooth transfer of power not GMA's job

By Tiberio

IT'S NOT PRESIDENT MACAPAGAL's job to prepare for a smooth transfer of power to his successor, Macapagal said.

Whether or not his troops are stepping down at the end of his term on June 30, 2010, he has the right to refuse to step down.

"The transition step would be the end of the term. When the term is going to end, I think that is going to be the smooth transition that we're all waiting for," said Macapagal.

for president, it was he that they're fit to be the president, and they don't need any guide or anything to lead them to the right direction," he said.

In the latest edition, Cabinet Secretary Sison said he believed President Macapagal's position was to ensure the President's transfer of power.

"These are the main presidential responsibilities," he said. "It's not the President's job to ensure the President's transfer of power."

Spoelstra holds out hope for RP basketball

By Joanne N. Pao

LOCAL BUZZERS WHO CLAIM THAT PHILIPPINE INSIDER AMBROSIO hopes of coaching on the world basketball stage drew a rebuttal from Miami Heat coach Erik Spoelstra.

The Miami Heat coach, who coached the Miami Heat to a 66-16 record last year, said the Philippines should just sit back and wait for the right opportunity to come along.

"There are a lot of suitcases out there," Spoelstra said yesterday. "It doesn't change anything that the suitcases will be there. It's about timing and opportunity in the right time."

"You have to understand the young players in the country and learn how to play together in a system and work on a system, not just."

MANILA, July 30 (AP) —

"The game of basketball is becoming more global. Players are coming from every country and every region of the world. There's a lot of potential here and it's one of only three countries in the world where basketball is the most popular sport. It's a great opportunity for the Philippines to become a basketball powerhouse."

Telco refusal to give records stalls probe

By Joanna L. Andruke

THE INVESTIGATION BEING CONDUCTED by the Manila police into two cases has hit a snag following the refusal of a telecommunications company to provide police with the victim's phone records, a police official said yesterday.

Chief Insp. Ernie Margules,

Manila Police Division (MPD) homicide section head, said the phone records were vital to the resolution of the two cases—the day attempt was to be made of the Manila International Container Port (MCP) which left his employee dead and the murder of a victim missing.

He added that the telecommunications firm, in refusing to provide police investigators access to its records, invoked the right to privacy of its subscribers.

Margules, however, said the cell phone records of the victim could provide them information that could lead to the resolution of the cases.

"I was informed by the company that their legal division advised

Fashion designer derby at the Sona

Re Charles W. Morris

THE FASHION SPECTACLE at the State of the Nation Address (Short) Monday wasn't as much who looked best as who dressed who. From our perch, it was a fashion designers' derby.

Days before the event, Nigo Lamont, favored by cocktailers, high society and politicians, was imprisoned on an over-revealing tuxedo. He said he was making 15 points by the time. Who knows how many of these were actually given...some clients are known to take several points from different designers they can choose from...but nonetheless, 15 for one session is an astonishing feat of improvisation.

Another designer whose clothes make a fashionable statement on the Brazilian red carpet is Dêa Calad, chosen by the likes of Gov. Sérgio Boffa's wife Lúcia Miranda and the President's daughter-in-law Anívia Arroz.

In a phone chat with us Wednesday, Cabal turned coy when told he must have ANNE CURTIS' style goes well with her stylish phone. The actress is seen in a black dress, posing on a red carpet. She is holding a Sony Ericsson phone. The phone is shown in a close-up shot, displaying a yellow flower on its screen. The phone is a candy-bar style with a small screen and a keypad.

Changing the landscape of New Manila: PineCrest.

When you think of Manila you imagine rows of pine trees, fresh breeze, and cool climate. You think crisp, clean air. You think it's good for the kids and the grandparents. You imagine a healthy environment including one free from noise pollution battered by towering trees.

Now, take a deep breath and realize all that - in Manila - and you get PineCrest.

Developer Crown Asia has created the ideal locale offering to date, pine trees, world-class amenities.

PineCrest is among the most commercially important of tree species, valued for their timber and wood pulp throughout the world. In temperate and tropical regions, they are fast growing softwoods that will grow in relatively dense stands, thus making them ideal for enhancing the spreading of temperate hardwoods.

"We actually imported the trees from Australia and created a nursery in Santa Rosa, so we could populate the development with Pine trees," says King Hussein, President of Vista Land & Lifescapes, Inc. "Most people are surprised that they can grow in our climate," she adds. "PineCrest will live up to its name."

Perennial spring will soon be upon New Manila as PineCrest, the fast-track development that sits on almost 8,000 square meters of prime land, is committed right inside the LRT 2 station.

MORE REASONS TO PINE FOR HOME.

Blessing of model unit today at 4pm.

Hundreds of specially grown pine trees will give you a surprising welcome to PineCrest. The exclusive, low-rise development at the corner of famous Santa Rosa Drive and Aurora Boulevard. Consisting of three towers, PineCrest sits on almost 8,000 square meters of prime land, right beside the LRT 2 station.

Pine trees generously dotting the development will act as a buffer against the noise and racket of the city, at the same time creating crisp, fresh air you only find in high-altitude settings. PineCrest's every detail has been carefully planned to create a luxurious and indulgent environment. Just as incredible you can leave the city but not be far away from the bright lights of Greenhills, New Manila, and Times Square. You have convenience as your immediate neighbors: schools, hospitals, entertainment centers.

The fresh air, the quiet environment so unlike the city, will make you long for home, or dream having it.

'ID artist' goes for fit and fabric

TWENTY-SEVEN YEARS AGO, Agnes Manalang put up a salon and named it Regin's, after her mother. When Agnes Arce's swim team drove, Regin's moved to West Drive Arcade, also in Makati, then to Park Square II, and finally to its present location in the UIC.

Manalang's daughter Regin, no doubt inspired by her mother's success, went on to become Cinesouth's first beauty

THE WORKING CLASS

Regin Sityen Go, columnist

Regin took up hairdressing at Laguna de Manila, but feeling great satisfaction in making people happy through makeover, she decided to attend color seminars in Cinesouth.

After passing written, oral and practical exams, she earned her Color Expert degree and became a finalist for the Next Generation category in 2006. She then graduated with honors in the Color Expert category in 2006. She also took evening workshops in the American Makeup.

As an ID artist, she inspires young people to consider hairstyling as profession. She goes to different salons in Manila to share her latest techniques to the staff.

Fave hairstyles

Regin loves edgy, textured, dramatic hairstyles. She loves to wear short hair—pixie and short bobbed hair with a 10 wise luxury beauty investments

Be careful—expensive doesn't always mean effective

Knockout!

Risa Francisco-Prisio

LUXURY is really any which way you look at it. That's why we should be wise about what we spend on, especially when it comes to beauty. Six products stand out as most effective, beautiful ones.

Here are 10 ways you won't feel so guilty about spending on. They are effective and fun-to-use!

1 Anti-aging serum—Chanel Les Éclairs Melle Hermès Cap-Sun Fluid. This ultra-protecting serum transforms skin quality while activating luminous deep tones. The fresh, light, transparent emulsion gel is designed for after-sun absorption and repairing. Lightly reconstituted in office, its intense radiance is visible in every subtle touch. Skin quality visibly improves, skin texture is refined and pores are tightened. Best of all, skin tone stays in control.

2 Skin replacement—Bioré, Biores. Classic was the first instant skin replacement. It's reduced, using a unique scientific approach, to creating healthy, youthful skin. As time passes, this changes our reality as we age, and so do the work of aging for skin.

3 Cosmetics—Bioré, Biores. Classic was the first instant skin replacement. It's reduced, using a unique scientific approach, to creating healthy, youthful skin. As time passes, this changes our reality as we age, and so do the work of aging for skin.

4 Facial treatment—L'Oréal Paris. This is a dense lightweight exfoliator with SPF 20 and a hint of color that can be used in place of foundation. The exfoliating formula hydrates skin, softens and even skin dry lines. The product also contains an antioxidant vitamin complex that acts as a free radical scavenger to protect the skin from the most aggressive effects of the environment.

5 Lipstick—L'Oréal Paris. This is a dense lightweight exfoliator with SPF 20 and a hint of color that can be used in place of foundation. Home along the bay

Dolphy and ZsaZsa built a home filled with memories, music and laughter

By Reynard San Diego Jr.

IN THIS HOUSE, BUET is reclaimed land somewhere along Manila Bay, King of Comedy Dolphy and "lifeline partner" ZsaZsa Padilla can confidently and cheerfully shed their public personas and just be their private selves.

"We made our dream house a revelation near Jeta in this village," ZsaZsa says. "But he also wanted a change of scenery after living in Greenbelt for years."

Away from the spotlight, the master couple is a throwback for the masses that to ZsaZsa.

She's the real closer in the last by Dolphy says. "I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

In flowers, ZsaZsa recalls a bit before her first marriage. "I was a housewife. I was a housewife. I was a housewife."

Our daughter ZsaZsa entered the room and said, "What's all the noise about?"

"We were at the house," Dolphy says. "We were at the house. We were at the house."

ZsaZsa admits that after two decades together, "We have seen all sides of me, good and bad. I can't hide anything from him."

Indeed, they have every little thing and every little thing in their house.

the beach," Dolphy says. "It's a beach. It's a beach. It's a beach."

"It's a beach. It's a beach. It's a beach. It's a beach. It's a beach."

Then, one day returning from a trip abroad, Dolphy caught ZsaZsa crying in the kitchen.

The reason had slipped much further, the beach from being a housewife's house. It was a housewife's house.

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

"I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money. I'm not my money."

Favorite music

Many Dolphy's favorite music is the music of the 1960s, where he studied it all day, or play the music from his time in the service.

The Dolphy TV is a gift from ZsaZsa. "It's a gift from ZsaZsa. It's a gift from ZsaZsa. It's a gift from ZsaZsa."
